

2011 Shenandoah River Rodeo

Shenandoah River Keeper Jeff Kelble has announced the annual River Rodeo will be held Saturday, August 13 at the VFW facility/property along the 'Doah in Front Royal, Virginia.

This annual event is for anyone that wants to spend time fishing, kayaking, canoeing, rafting, snorkeling or just camping along the river with fellow enthusiasts. The ticket price includes a fully catered BBQ dinner with adult beverages and a bluegrass band performance from 4-8 pm. Camping is included in the ticket.

From 10a-3p there will be a children's event featuring wild animal displays and educational exhibits, face painting, free canoe trips, artwork, fly fishing demonstrations and free lessons.

Many of the region's top river guides will participate in a "float tournament" held prior to the dinner and festivities. Everyone is invited to join this expedition whether you plan to fish or just paddle.
